Matthew 6:7-15

A WORSHIP SERIES THROUGH JESUS' SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Matthew 6:7-15

And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. <sup>8</sup> Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. <sup>9</sup> Pray then like this:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.

<sup>10</sup> Your kingdom come,
your will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

<sup>11</sup> Give us this day our daily bread,

<sup>12</sup> and forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.

<sup>13</sup> And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

<sup>14</sup> For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, <sup>15</sup> but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

“And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases”

To Get Something
From God

To Get Something
From Others

To Get Something
From Ourselves

“And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases”

What Prayer Is

Relational Conversation with God... not just to get God to do something
but to open up our hearts to him, hear from Him, get to know him and even get to know ourselves.

It is an act of worship.

“And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases”

What Prayer Needs

“You must account yourself ‘desolate’ in this world, however great the prosperity of your lot may be.”

St. Augustine

“(Augustine) argues that no matter how great your earthly circumstances they cannot bring us the peace, happiness, and consolation that are found in Christ. The scales must fall from our eyes and we must see that—if we don’t all our prayers will go wrong.”

Tim Keller on Augustine’s Prayers

Before prayer can be prayer, our heart’s loves need to be re-ordered so that we “seek first the Kingdom of God”

Philippians 4:5b-7

The Lord is at hand; <sup>6</sup> do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. <sup>7</sup> And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Luke 22:42

Hebrews 4:14-16

Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. <sup>15</sup> For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. <sup>16</sup> Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.
